GRANT WRITING READINESS: Build Your Team's Capacity

November 7, 8, 14, 28, 29, & 30 — 1:00 p.m. - 3:30 p.m. CST

What You'll Learn

- Discover the components of effective grants
- Make “the right ask”
- Develop a strong case for operating funding
- Prepare transparent budgets
- Experience the grant review & scoring process
- Organize a “live” grant review panel
- Expand your grant submission team
- Build lasting funder relationships

Intended Audience

- Nonprofits ■ Tribes ■ Counties

Beginners and experienced grant writers will benefit from learning grant writing best practices and new strategies.

Advocates, case managers, administrative assistants, office managers, and Executive Directors, Board Members, Program Directors, and other staff and volunteers are welcome.

Professional Endorsements

Becky worked tirelessly on multiple grants that enabled Evergreen to serve Bemidji area youth and families. Her grant writing skills are superb, detailed and effective.

Randy McKain, M.Ed., L.S.M.

Program Director of Addictions Counseling, Oak Hills

I was very nervous about my level of knowledge regarding grant writing. You are a very engaging speaker and removed the fear I had starting this new adventure.

Janine Thaler, Family Safety Network

I have had the privilege to work with Becky as an Evergreen board member over the last nine years. ... During her tenure with the agency, Becky was responsible for obtaining, organizing and leading the agency through millions of dollars in funding to provide programming for our community's most vulnerable youth.

Edward Jones

Learn the Competitive Grant Review Process

Participate in a live internal grant review panel. Read, score, and write comments on a grant narrative, budget, workplan, and attachments.

- Experience a strategic grant review to maximize points
- Learn to convene your own internal grant review panel
- Evaluate a compelling case for organizational impact that touches “hearts and heads”
- Analyze and find sources for persuasive data that highlights community need
- Review and discuss budgets and budget narratives & learn to document expense calculations and matching costs

Testimonial

“I appreciated it when Becky took the time to answer questions from the class even if we took extra time and she had to adjust content. She is very fluid and extremely well informed. She shared multiple tips that will help.”

Participant Feedback

“Attended this training with Becky, and after 15 years in nonprofits, this was the most fun, interesting, informative and practical grant writing training I’ve ever had. The tech quality was perfect - participating from Bosnia was super easy.”

Leila Anwar Pačariz, Operations Manager,
Rabata, Inc., Sarajevo

“I learned how to learn about grants.”

Josh Red Day, Leech Lake Diabetes Program

“You organized and explained a subject that often overwhelms the ones that need it most. Most helpful for my organization was your detailed presentation on the Budget Narrative. Building it helps the organization, as well as the funder, to visualize the scope of the project.”
